ABOUT THE PSDI The Police Survival & Defense Institute / Police Self-Defense Institute was established many years under the historic United States Karate Association. Many of the senior law-enforcement instructors in the United States and abroad were trained and certified under the PSDI. Personnel were represented from the Anti-Terrorists Units, Secret Service, FBI, CID, Interpol, Air Marshals, active police officers, Sheriffs departments, State Departments – state and nations, and many other agencies that we cannot name by protocol.

Although trained personnel were in operation, the PSDI was not really pursue any activities for several years because its national goal, the formation of state and national Peace Officer Training Councils with sound Standard Operations Procedures, was realized in most states of the Union.

Today, however, the PSDI has been again summoned to assist the effort to provide correct and necessary training for the general public and to again comment on and advice various agencies on sound operational techniques standards.
